FUNDED RESEARCH ACTIVITIES: GRANTS, UNIVERSITY & PHILANTHROPIC SUPPORT

Funding & Grant Activities

- $ 20,000 When Cancer Calls... : A communication intervention for enhancing compassionate care for nurses. (W. Beach, Co-PI). (SDSU Cancer Research Group #C04227/January, 2020-January, 2021).
- $1,612,762 *Conversations about Cancer (CAC) Phase II: National dissemination and effectiveness trial for When Cancer Calls... (W. Beach, PI) (NCI CA 144235-02/August, 2012-August, 2015)*
- Extension of Phase I NCI funding which established feasibility of impact and potential of When Cancer Calls... Randomized control study (San* Diego, Salt Lake City, Lincoln, Boston) to advance nationwide dissemination strategy and enactment plan for integrating universities, major cancer centers, communities, and theatrical production networks. Proposal for commercialization and long-term utilization of live, recorded, and on-line performances to diverse audiences. Implications for edutainment and cancer education.

$15,000,000 Comprehensive SDSU/UCSD Partnership on Cancer Disparities (Communication Advisor/Consultant). (U54 CA132384 & 132379)

This 5 year project seeks to explain and help alleviate cancer disparities. Basic research, education, and community outreach programs will be integrated to reduce differences in cancer incidence and deaths across the San Diego region.

Prior Funding

$472,879 Conversations about cancer: A theatrical production. (W. Beach, PI) National Institutes of Health/National Cancer Institute. (NCI 1R41CA144235)

Phase I feasibility study of audience members' reactions to a performance in which all dialogue is drawn from naturally occurring (transcribed) interactions between family members as they navigate their way through the trials and tribulations, hopes and triumphs of a cancer journey. Assessments will be made of impacts on audience members from watching live performances (San Diego) and DVD recordings (Denver).

$346,728 Communication between cancer patients and oncologists (W. Beach, PI). National Institutes of Health/National Cancer Institute (NCI 1R21 CA122472-01A1).

Collaborative study with the Moores UCSD Cancer Center focusing on video recordings of medical interviews between "first time/new" cancer patients and oncologists. Pilot study on raising and responding to fears, uncertainties, and hopes about cancer.

$25,000 Arthur & Rise Johnson Foundation, La Jolla, CA

Unrestricted gift to pursue research and application of work on 'communication and cancer' in both family interactions and clinical encounters

- $7,500 Salah Hassanein, San Diego, CA
- To write a script from actual transcriptions of family members talking through cancer on the telephone
- $25,000 President's Leadership Fund (PLF) Award, SDSU
- $12,000 Dean's Excellence Fund Award (PSFA), SDSU
- Production of the play listen... a documentary of how family members talk through cancer on the telephone
- $10,000 President's Leadership Fund Award (PLF), SDSU
- $15,000 Dean's Excellence Fund Award (PSFA), SDSU
- $74,425 American Cancer Society (PI) (#ROG 98-172-01; June, 1998-May, 1999)
- Conversations about cancer: Understanding how families talk through illness on the telephone
- >$100,000 University Funded Grants-In-Aid to support the study of interaction and communication

COLLABORATIONS WITH TELEVISION ARTS

Executive Producer and Writer of national documentary film, A Journey Through Breast Cancer, (KPBS & Public Broadcasting Services (PBS), Fall, 2021, with greater than 150,000 viewers:

<https://www.pbs.org/video/a-journey-through-breast-cancer-yba46m/>

Nominated for an Emmy Award by the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (NATAS). Spring, 2021.

Accepted for national dissemination to 275+ PBS affiliate stations by National Education Telecommunications Association (NETA). Summer, 2021.

In collaboration with UCSD Moores Cancer Center/Breast Cancer Health Center directed by Anne Wallace, MD. This is also a collaboration with Emmy Award Winning filmmaker Timothy Powell, PhD, SDSU School of Theatre, Television, & Film. The film documents communication between a woman, her husband, family members, and a diverse medical team over 3 1/2 years – from diagnosis through treatment options, surgery, chemotherapy, radiation, breast reconstruction, and onto eventual remission.

COLLABORATIONS WITH THEATRE ARTS

Playwright & Executive Producer, When Cancer Calls... > 100 screenings nationwide of live performances.

Professionally filmed and acted theatrical production, currently airing nationally on Public Broadcasting Stations (PBS) with greater than 150,000 viewers:

<https://www.pbs.org/video/when-cancer-calls-jwcfcc/>

The basis for 2010-2015 NCI grants for refining and disseminating the production throughout San Diego, southern California, and across the United States.

Executive Producer for listen – A family, a phone call, a diagnosis..., a performance based on the recorded phone conversations of one family's journey through cancer. Based on my research materials, and collaborations with theatre experts, to bring these materials to the stage and community. Raised over $50,000 for Script Production, Workshop Readings (Spring, 2006), and full production at SDSU's Experimental Theatre (October, 2006).

Accepted for national dissemination to 275+ PBS affiliate stations by National Education Telecommunications Association (NETA). Summer, 2021.
